Concert Bb (B-flat) Scale.....Unknown

American Spirit March.....arr. John O'Reilly

This piece is a medley of our countries most treasured patriotic songs such as the Star Spangled Banner, America the Beautiful, Yankee Doodle, America (My Country Tis of Thee), and You're a Grand Old Flag. Students continue to learn how to make notes into musical 'sentences', or phrases, and incorporate harmony into their performance.

Old MacDonald Had a Band.....American Folk Song
Naomi Ebhaleme, flute, Lancaster School

Frere Jacques.....French Folk Song
Avery DiBella, flute, Lancaster School

Sakura, Sakura.....Traditional Japanese Folk Song

Sakura, Sakura is a traditional Japanese folk song that translates to "Cherry Blossom, Cherry Blossom". This is a song that is used to depict springtime in Japanese culture. Our musicians used this piece to learn about the pentatonic scale, which is a scale that has five notes. It has a distinctly different sound than much of the music we hear everyday.

London Bridge.....English Folk Song
Andrew Raymond and Axel Valentin, Jr., saxophone, Soule School
Naomi Ebhaleme and Avery DiBella, flute, Lancaster School

Ode to Joy (from Beethoven's 9th Symphony).....Ludwig van Beethoven
Haleigh Sanborn, flute and Lucas Feuer, trombone, Barron School

Alpha Dog.....Heather Hoefle

Alpha Dog is a great example of music that is designed to excite an audience. Sometimes, we refer to this kind of music as "pep band" music. You might hear this at a sporting event, or even a rock concert! We loved learning about how patterns in music create sections, and contribute to musical form. We also enjoyed playing music for FUN!
